A GUARANTEED CURE for all diseases caused by a TOR-PID LIVER. One bettle purchased to-day may save you a serious sick snell tomorrow.

SMALL DOSE, LARGE BOTTLE-PRICE 50c. GET THE GENUINE. BALLARD SNOW LINIMENT CO., 500-502 North Second Street, - ST. LOUIS, MO. Sold and Recommended by

Sold by Grenshaw & Young

W. V. Curtis sold for Mrs. C.

O, Grimes 50 feet off of East side of F Forster. Consideration 8950.

ceats and $1.00. Sold by C. W

TAUBMAN

Abstract and Agency

Company

Apstracts, Real Estate

and Loans

CHICAGO & ALTON RY.

In effect Nov 1, 1906,

RAST BOUND.

WEST BOUND,

S. A. Vermillion,

Heginsville, Mo

No. 24.

Daily, The "Early Bird" for St. Louis 10:47p. m

TABLE

CATRON &

Loomis.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mrs. W. S. Peacock visited in her home on East South street to J. Higginsville Saturday.

A guaranteed Cough remedy is Bees Laxative Cough Syrup is in-Bees Laxative Cough Syrup. For stant relief for coughs, colds, croup, coughs, colds, croup, whooping whooping coughs. It is gently laxacough, hoarseness and all bronchial tive and drives the cold from the sysaffections. Best for children be- tem clearing the head and throat. cause it is quick to relieve and tastes Pleasant to take. Good for hoursegood. Gently laxative and drives ness and all bronchial trouble. Guarthe cold from the system. Sold by C. W. Loomis.

B. M. Little left Friday evening W. Loomis. for a trip to Harrisonville.

Of Interest to Women.

Don't slave at the wash-tub! A new invention which does away with bard work on wask-day. In order to introduce our pump and have your neignbors know all about it we offer for thirty days, our $3.00 washer almost free. It saves your hands, time and temper. All you have to do is to put clothes in tub and move the handle of the pneumatic clotheswasher up and down. The pump does the rest in half the time. It does the work easier and better than the $4.00 machines. Send $1.00, send now for this washer-providing you agree to demonstrate it to your next door neighbors. Money returned if not satisfied. Send 25 cents more if you want us to pay express. Descriptive pamphlet sent on request.

Write at once to Pierce & Baker, 654 Washington Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

W. H. Chiles returned Friday evening from a business trip to Jefferson City.

Everybody is likely to have kidney and bladder trouble. In fact nearly everybody has some trouble of this kind. That is the reason why you so often have pains in the back and Rooms 3 and 5 Haerle Bullding. groin, scalding sensation, urinary disorders etc .- that's your kidneys. The best thing to do is to get some of DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills right away. Take them for a few days or a week or so and you will feel all right. In this way, too, you will ward off dangerous and possibly serious ailments. They are perfectly barmless, and are not only antiseptic. but allay pain quickly by their heal-E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, for a F. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, for a free trial box. They are sold here No. 10. by all druggists.

Miss Clarice Weyand came up from Otterville Friday evening] for a few days' visit.

famous little liver pills, 2"small, gen- No. 9. tle and sure. Sold by all druggists. No. 17.

Friday evening from a brief stay in Kansas City.

Won't Slight a Good Friend.

"If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get," declares Mrs. A. L. Alley of Beals, Me., "for, after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeinglits excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced It is] the best medicine made for coughs, colds and lung trouble." Everyone who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and Its quick cure surprises you. For broachitis, astuma, hemorrhage, croup, lagrippe, sore throat, pain in chest or lungs it's supreme. 50 cent and $1.00. Trial battle free. Guaranteed by Crenshaw & Young.

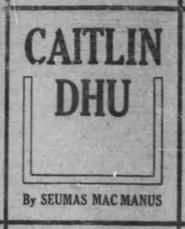

Mrs. Annie Corse returned to Wellington yesterday after a visit with friends in this city.

We would like to prove to every sufferer of Kidney diseases that Pineules will bring prompt relief. Bachache, rheumatism, lumbago, fatigue and impure blood are merely symptoms of Kidney disorders. The $1.00 size contains 24 times gas much as the 50 cent size. Sold by C. W Loomis.

Miss Emily Lambert returned from Kansas City Friday evening.

Kills to Stop"the Fiend.

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over $400 without benefit. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures fever-sores, bolls, felons, eczema, salt rheum. Infallible for burns, scalds, cuts [and] corns, 25 cents at Crenshaw &

(Copyright, by J. B. Lippincott Co.)

Caitlin was styled Dhu from the color of her hair, which had the glossy tue of the raven's wing.

Right on the brink of the steep bank of the Loch-a bank richly clothed this summer evening with heather and woodbine and blaeberry bushesshe and Phil sat. Both were still in their bare feet; they had just concluded doing their Station by the Holy Well, and sat them down without resuming their boots. On Caltlin's blueveined, fair feet Phil's eyes were fixed with a sad look.

The black lashes were drooped over Caitlin's eyes too, and she was gazing into the shimmering waters below. nteed because we know what it will "Ah, Phil!" she said, feelingly, "don't do. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by C. be so sore on me."

"Sore!-on you? Caltlin, dear, sure ye wouldn't think me capable i' that?" R. B. Berrie was in Higginsville and here he raised his eyes and looked in her face with meek reproof.

"Ye would not be capable iv it, Phil, Pinemes are for backache and God bliss ye, ye wouldn't!-but-I bring quick relief to humbago, rheu- know so well that I have deserved it matism, fatigue and all other symp- of ye." Caitlin chaied one foot with ons of Kidney diseases. They are a the other as she spoke. coulc to the entire system and build

"No, Caitlin, it isn't to say bard words to ye-God forbid!-that I axed up strength and health. Price 50 ye sit down with me over here. But' -Phil breathed deeply-"I wanted to put it to ye straight, an' get a straight answer from yer own lips. Have ye preferred Dominic Boyle iv yer own free will an' choice? Don't regard my feelin's, Caitlin, me treasure, but spaik now, as I always knew ye spaik, the bare thruth."

"Phil," she said, and looked him in the face, "Phil, I have preferred Dominic Boyle of me own free will and choice." A powerful effort to master ber emotion almost gave a defiant ring to the words.

Phil looked her calmly in the eye, a look which she returned for a moment. Then he looked below into the lake. "Thanky, Caitlin; that's answered as bravely as I'd expect of ye." Here be looked up at her again. An' it's a sad relief to me to know the thing straightforward from yer own lips." As he spoke he placed his hand upon Caitlin's, which, bolding her beads, rested in her lap. Though Caltlin's countenance still seemed very, very firm set, there suddenly started from her eye a teardrop, which rolled rapidy down a countenance where the colors were chasing one another like sunshine and shadow upon a fickle day and dropped upon his hand. He snatched away the hand with a gasp of pain, as if molten lead had dropped

"Caitlin! Cainlin!" Caitlin's head was now sunk. "Forgive me for put-tin' this thrial on ye. I did nit for paice iv mind to meself-an' more than me," Phil pleaded. "Forgive me, darlin'!"

"Phil, dear," Caitlin said, "don't spake that way, for God's sake! Me forgive you! Oh, Phil, if there's anywan has the forgiveness in their power, it's wan that has the kind heart an' the good heart to exercise it-an' that's you!"

"Ye're hurtin' me sore, Caitlin. Ye don't know what ye're sayin'."

"Right well I know-nn' bitterly, Phil. But I wouldn't like ye'd have too bad an opinion iv me. Phil-" "Caltlin!"

"I want ye now to know from me the prayer I prayed along that moor this evenin', I never meant to carry ye on through any bad-heartedness. Mind, I don't say I'm not to blame; blameful, indeed, I know i am: but it wasn't wilful on my part. It was somethin' worse than thoughtlessness I' me, Phil, if ye only knew; I had the likin' for Dominic Boyle an' I had the likin' for ye; which i' yez I liked best it would 'a' puzzled me to say sooner. Now, Phil, I say straightforrid to ye-for yer own sake—as I sayed to him last Sunday evenin', me heart has inclined to Dominic Boyle. Don't blame me too much, Phil; I cannot force me were upon the penitents, who stood in the lake and prayed towards the east. and then, turning them round, prayed towards the rude altar on the shore, the waters laving their bare legs.

He turned his gaze upon Caitlin when she had finished. "An', Cattlin, do you think I would blame ye, or expect ye to force yer likin'? Caitlin, I'm afeered ye don't know Phil Maguire yet. Now, Caltlin, give me yer han'. Good-by, an' I pray may God bliss an' prosper yet an' Dominic."

"Oh. Phil, that prayer puts harder on me than if ye sthruck me. Wan word, Phil; I heard that ye an' Dominic had some words on Sunday night." "It's so-it's so, Cattlin, an' I I'm sorry from the bottom iv me heart.

Besides, I didn't know then-I didn't know," and his gaze again wandered to the penitents in the water. "An' I know," Caltlin went on, "I have only to ask ye not to say anything more to Dominic-not to quarrel with him; for he's hot. I know I have only to say the word to you, Phil." "For that ye wouldn't even need to say the word to me. If I sayed an ill it was to ye I was sayin' an' doin' it." Good by, then, Phil."

Her voice was weak and tremulous as she said it. Phil, without a word on his part, with face even averted, pressed her extended hand; and as he did so another tear fell upon his hand. Into the outer bay on the next even-He bounded away, teeling as if a stab ing when Dominic Boyle and Eamon had entered his heart.

their beads with a pleading, mournful and looked on.

words I sayed on Sunday night-heart- casting off his coat, had buttoned it ily sorry, believe me."

"Phil Maguire," said Dominic, "It matthers to me not that much"-and he snapped his fingers-"whether ye're sorry or plaised for what happened on Sunday night. That's not my business with ye now. I axed ye on Sunday night-Eamon Ward here was listenin',"-Eamon nodded in assent-"I axed ye to stop givin' annoyance to Caltlin Dhu. I toul' ye-as I had a play?" Dominic inquired. right to tell ye-that Cattlin desired no more iv yer company; an' I toul' ye that I would see to it ye didn't keep pesterin' ber any more. Didn't I say that, Eamon?"

Dominic's friend again nodded. "An', Phil Maguire, any young man who'd be given to understand that a girl wanted to have nothin' more to say to him, if he had a splank to man- afeerd of foul play at your hands, hood in him"-Dominic squared his which I am not." shoulders and his face blazed-'if he had, I say, a splank iv manhood in him, he'd respect that girl's wish, an' he'd show himself, moreover, above hangin' on to that girl's skirts an' cravin' her favor for God's sake. Phil Maguire, ye're no man!"

With arms crossed, and not a muscle in his face moving, Phil looked him in the eye with apparent calmness, and so heard him to the bitter end. The color went out of his cheeks, of the two. But Phil was more lithe, though, as Dominic proceeded. with cleaner muscles, and was a much

"Dominic Boyle, ye do me wrong." "Ha! ha! I do you wrong! Then watchin' ye, Phil Maguire-I was watchin' ye, not half an hour ago, on him by Dominic." vexin' the girl again. An' ye did vex her sore-I seen that. Phil Maguire, the blood too! What is come over if you worn't worse than mane, ye wouldn't have been guilty iv it."

Phil parted his lips-twice, thricehereupon to reply, but closed them fella' as sure as my name's Charlie, again, h's face growing more livid at Phew! blood alive, what a blow!"

each attempt.

"Now, I promised that I won 'n't al- other landed on him-his eye, too!" low ye to keep on ennoyin' that girl, an' that promise I mane to keep-or feature on his face for the blood." thry to keep. Ye have been cried up, Phil Maguire, as the best boxer in much as would dip a pen." Inver, so ye'll not be taken at a disadvantage if ye're challenged by me. flerce. He let out his left hand with This is a holy evenin', an' I'll not sin a terrible wind meant for Phil's jaw, messlf disgracing it; but, in the pres- and as Phil successfully saved himself, ence iv Eamon Ward, here, I chal- Dominic's right, which followed lightlenge ye to meet me on the morra ning-like, struck him full in the evenin' half an hour afther sunsettin' stomach; Phil wavered a moment, undher the knowe that's by the Batthery, till ye answer to me for annoyin' Caitlin Dhu," me!

"I'll listen, sartinly, to yer reply to that." "I say, for God's sake, hear wan word of explanation from me." "Oh, so ye think explainin' aisler than boxin'! I'm sorry i can't accommodate ye, then. Ye're the first boxer in the parish. On the stren'th 'im air! He's only winded, an'll be all I' that ye vex a poor, defenceless girl, thinkin' none dar' check ye for it. Here am I, that have niver yet crawed much about me boxin', an' I fling a Phil's head, and Phil opened his eyes. own lips that as I hope God will hear challenge in yer teeth (bein' forced to do it); an' ye, champion boxer, propose to arguey me on the matther instead of fight me. I'll confess meself cowed at wanst if it's goin' to be a battle iv words."

> "Will ye, then, if ye don't do it for God's sake, will ye have wan minute's raison with ye for Caitlin's sake?"

"Stop, sir, stop! If ye don't want me to br'ak this holy evenin', don't soil that girl's name be mentionin' it with yer lips. Again I throw the challenge in yer teeth, Phil Maguire-ye're witness to this, Eamon Ward, he's gittin' a second an' last chance to take me challenge, or confess himself to the parish as a low-lived coward, only As Phil listened to this his eyes at to bully weemen. Again I ax ye, will ye meet me at the time an' place I sayed, to defend yer conduct ly this evenin'? Yis, or no?"

Phil, now quite livid, looked him in the eye with contemptuous defiance for a full minute. Dominic tried to return the look as steadily, but could not. His gaze shifted ignominiously.

"No!" replied Phil.

Dominic turned to Eamon Ward. "Ye're witness to that, Eamon, an' good-by to ye. Phil Maguire; let this I branded him a mean man an' a from this day forrid, ye attempt to the raisin Phil Maguire stood up on split lips to me, though it was in the the heather there to me this evening Heaven, I'll athrike ye to me feet! brute could. A brute I am Caltlin Good by for now an' forever!"

placed himself before him. "I'll meet Hes a man-an', good as ye are, Cait-ye the morra' evenin' half an hour lin Dhu, he's worthy of ye! No! no!

Dominic started back with amase mine, but some day, Fareword or done an ill turn to Dominio ment and heard him out, then he well!"

Boyle from this hour. Po feel, Caltin, curned upon a non a look o, astonish ment bleat with inquiry,

"Iv coorse," Eamon said, and nodded Dominic's lip curled with a sneer as he turned to Phil. "All right," he said

The sun was scarcely gone down Ward arrived at the Battery of the He crossed the Paidrin path, where Lough. Dominic was whistling with a line of men and women and youths, a well-affected air of unconcern. He strong ones and healthy ones, were now began to test his leaping-powers. still moving along in single file, telling whilst Eamon sat upon the sluice-gate cedence that found a faithful echo in The news of the challenge had to unon him "Yes, I'm ready." "Phil! Phil, man! throw off yer cont!" several cried out hastily, and, running to him, they almost dragged it off him. When the coat was gone he put off the vest himself, and bound his braces around him similarly to Dominic. "Who have ye to show ye fair

Phil looked around on the group. Enough here to do that," he said. "From yer own friend, Eamon Ward, to Padhrig McGinley, if there's wan would stan' by an' see foul play, I don't know him."

They all murniured in assent and odded their heads.

"That is," Phil went on, "if I was At this expression of generous seniment a murmur of approbation went up from the circle. "Very well," said Dominic Boyle, "if ye're satisfied, I am. Come on!" The circle around them hastily wilened. Dominic, without loss of a econd, sprang upon his opponent, and both closed in fight. Both combatants were powerful fellows. Dominic looked, and probably was, the stronger more practiced boxer. "Eh? What's over Phil? I don't beme own eyes do me wrong. I was lieve he has got in a single blow yet. There! there's another crusher landed

> "Ay, ay! By me soul, an' he's losin' 'im? I niver-God help us, that's a stunner!-I niver seen Phil make such fightin'. There's somethin' on the poor

"Back! Stan' back, Charlie! An-"Dear God! Ye can hardly see a

"An' there isn't out of Dominic as Dominic went on, more grim and came up again with guards up, and then, a spasm sweeping across his features, fell helplessly to the ground. "Dominic, for God's sake, listen to And as he fell there was heard from above them a scream, and Caitlin Dhu, unbonneted, unshawled, and with her long black hair streaming behind her, came bounding down the knowe and threw herself prostrate on the fallen form of Phil Maguire!

"Caitlin! Caitlin!" they said, pulling her from off him, "for God's sake, give right in another minnit." Eamon Ward, sitting down on the ground behind him, had now raised calmly.

"Caltlin! Oh, Caltlin!" he said. "Phil Maguire," she said, and in her tones were mingled joy and reproof, "why-why have ye done this?"

"Ah, Calilin! ye should not have come here!"

guire, ye gave me şer solemn word not to interfere with Dominic Boyle. Yer word I never before knew ye to break. Ah, Phil! is not this a punishment on ye from God?"

Phil cast down his eyes and replied

Dominic Boyle stepped forward. "Cattlin," he began. But she stopped him with an imperious wave of her little hand. "Dominte Boyle," she said, with deep anger in her tone, "laive my sight! laive my sight! an' I never want to see a sight of yer face more!"

Dominic's face grew red with shame. "Yes, Catilin," he said, "l'il laive yer, sight. But I can't do it, an' I won't do it, till I tell ye, first, that Phil Maguire, there, is as blameless of this as ye are. God knows I little suspected that ye had taken such a promise from prepared to confirm it to the parish;" him, an' I little knew why it was I then he turned again to Phil. "Then couldn't provoke him till this fight till be the last discourse that'll ever pass coward, an' proposed advertisin' his atween us. Ye have now shown yer cowardice to the parish, an' did everyself to be not only a mean man, but a thing but splt on him. An' it's only low bully an' coward, an' if ever again, now, too, that me eyes is opened to presence of the priest, so help me till I beat an' bruised him as only a Dhu, an' well deserve to be ordhered "Wan word, Dominic Boyle!" Phil like a dog out of yer sight. But there afther sunset undher the Batthery Phil, I cannot take yer han' now, for yer red blood (God pardon me!) is on

Trustee's Sale.

Notice is hereby riven, that the undersigned as nustee, will sell the following described real estate situated in the southy of a flay its and State of Misseurity 2. The Southwest quarter of Section 38, in Township 48, and the Nouthwest quarter of the Northwest quarter of said Section 38, excepting the life estate of Annie It Whilliams in the East @ acres of the South haif of said Southwest quarter of said Section 38, said the contact of the South haif of said Southwest quarter of said Section 38, said if estate being the homestand and dower of said Annie It. Williams set apart to her out of the land of Thomas F, Williams by the tircuit tourt of said county at Lexingron. at Lexington Said sale will be at public tendue to the highest bidder, for cash, on the depths of his heart. With head bowed he hurried on to the Holy Well.

SATURDAY THE INTH DAY OF MAY, 1909,

"Ye're in a mortial hurry, Phil Maguire."

He turned round abruptly.

"Good-evening to ye both. Dominic Boyle, I'm glad to see ye," said Phil, extending his hand.

Dominic Boyle drew back. "Thanky, Phil Maguire."

Dominic Boyle drew back. "Thanky, Phil Maguire."

Phil Maguire." he said; "I wish I could say as much." Dominic's companion smiled at the sarcastic sally.

"Look here, Dominic," said Phil with great frankness, "I'm sorry for the hot words I sayed on Sunday night—heart."

The news of the challenge had to some they be made ont, for ore they were they were they were many minutes there half a dozen other to dozen of the court hours of 5 o'ciock A. M. and 5 F. M. of that day, at the front door of the court hours in the City of Lexington, had been other young men arrived.

Phil soon arrived—strangely pale, they all remarked, but very calm.

He gave them a nod and said to them generally: "A purty evening the made y virtue of the authority divent the ondersigned, by a certain deed of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the gave them a nod and said to them generally: "A purty evening the made y virtue of the authority divent the ondersigned, by a certain deed of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of said Lafayette county, and Staic of Missour, and will be made y virtue of the authority divent the ondersigned, by a certain deed of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of said Lafayette county, and Staic of Missour, and will be made y virtue of the authority divent the ondersigned, by a certain deed of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of said Lafayette county, and Staic of Missour, and will be made y virtue of the authority does not be a second of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of trust dated the flat day of June 1809 in the Recorder's affice of trust dated

JOSEPH O. LESUEUR,

Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas Herman Crone inow more than nine months decreased and Florence Crone. his wife, by their certain deed of Trust dated June 28. Bas. acknowledged and fleed for record June 28. Bas acknowledged and fleed for freed filed for the following of the Recorder of I cross for Lafayette County, Missouri, with the City of Lexington said County and State fir freet minches west of the infersection of the South line of South Street with the west line of Old Independence road, rouning if cace South one half degree West 12 feet thence North one half degree West 12 feet thence East parallel with South street 186 feet; thence South one half degree West 142 feet to Bloom street and being a loo of ground in the Southwest corner of land sold by the add Winkler to Gustavus B. Barron by deed dated May 2. 1304, and having a frontage on Bloom street of 55 feet and running North 142 feet and being a part of the Northwest quarter of section 34. Township 51. Range 27, which said deed was made in trust to secure the payment of a certain pronisory note the begin and the said interest remains ducand uppila and therefore the whole dobt has become due and payable. Now therefore this is to give note that I the nudersigned Trustee by virture of the powers in me vested under said deed of trust and bergue of said does of trust and expensed Trustee by contract of the powers in me vested under said deed of trust and begin and the legal holder and owner of said does of trust and expensed Trustee by virture of the powers in me vested under said deed of trust and begin and the legal holder and owner of said does of trust and deed of trust will on MONDAY, MAY 10th, 1966

MONDAY, MAY 10th, 1908

between the hours of a o'clock in the fore-noon and a o'clock in the afternoon of that day at the court bonas door in the elty of Lexington, Lafayette county. Missouri, offer for sale and se'l at public vendue to the high-est bidder for cash is hand the said property above described for the purpose of paying the amount due upon said note together with the costs and expenses of said trust and sale Given under my hand this oth day of April,

CHARLES LYONS. Trustee.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

STATE OF MI-SOURI COUNTY OF LAPAYETEE | 44.

In the Circuit Court of Lafayette County, Missour', in vacation April 30, 1909.

The State of Missouri at the relation and to the use of Geo. B. Gordon, Col ector of the Revenue of Lafayette county, in the State of Missouri, Plaintiff.

James Riley, Turley Riley Erley Riley and Beulah Riley a minor Defendants.

Briev a minor Defendants.]

To the said defendants James Riley, Turiey Riley, Ericy Riley and Beulah Riley, a minor, you are hereby notified that said Plaintiff has compenced a suit against you in said Court by petition, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a judgment for the Taxes, interest and costs due on the following described real estate, to-wit; Lot tweive (12) in Block 'D,' Haues City, Lafayette county, Missouri, said real estate being delinquent for the years 1993, 1996, 1996, 1997, 1998, and that said taxes for said years exclusive of penalty, interest and costs, amount in the aggregate to the sum of Fourteen and M-100 Dollars and that the same may be declared a lieu on said real estate, and that the same may be sold or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment rendered herein, with interest, fees, penalties, commissions and costs.

And you are further notified that unless.

commissions and costs.

And you are further notified that unless you appear at the next term of said court to be begun and held at the court house, in the City of Lexington, in said county on the next, and on or before the first day of said term, if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term, and answer said petition, the same will be taken answer said petition, the same will be laked as confessed.

SECOND DAY OF AUGUST, 1949

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published, in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette for four weeks successively, the last fuscrition to be 30 days before the commencement of the next term of this court

A true copy. Attest:

black J. W. SYDNOR, Clerk.

"On yesterday evenin', Phil Ma- c. Vivion, attorney for ol Intiff.

ST. LOUIS MEMPHIS THE EAST BEST REACHED BY THE

For information see A. S. LOOMIS, Agent-

Garden seed in bulk at Crenshaw &

I have added a coloring department to the studio and I am getting out some beautiful effects in water colors along with the photographs. The life like colors are a marvel in photo

Call and see some of the samples. The Picture Shop.

J. D. Collin

The St. Louis Times ONE WHOLE YEAR FOR

Through the Mail A COMPLETE PAPER 16 to 18 Pages Daily CLEAN, RISP NEWS

Fearless and Illndependent

If you want to take advantage of this special price, send in your $2.00 today and your subscription

This Special Rate is Good fok a Limited time

Sepd for a Sample Copy

The St. Louis Times St. Louis, Mo.

